REF: Petition dated 24.4.1953 from Srimathi K.Kamala Bai and the records of enquiry.

B Sri K.Lingappayya was serving as clerk in the Taluk Office Mangalore and he died of ill-health on 1.2.1953. He entered the service in the Revenue Department on 7.5.1928 and was confirmed as L.D.C. Taluk Office Udipi. He was serving in this Department for 24 years.

C On grounds of ill-health he entered on leave from 2.12.52 tillhis death on 1.2.1953. Theconduct and character of the deceased have found to be satisfactory through out his service.

D 2. The deceased has left behind him his widow, 2 sons and one daughter. The first son, Sri K.Vittal Rao is employed as clerk in the Punjab National Bank Ltd at Gadag and is drawing Rs.110/- p.m. He is living with his family (wife and child) at Gadag. The second son Sri K.Panduranga Rao is employed as a typist in the Central Bank of India at Mangalore and is getting Rs.86/- p.m. The daughter of the deceased is unmarried and is put up, with her mother. The widow states in her petition that her first son is not remitting any amount for to her and that she and her daughter are depending on her second son's pay of Rs.86/- p.m; that her daughter xxxxx attained the marriageable age; and that she requires atleast Rs.1000/- for the marriage of her daughter. She therefore requests the grant of compassionate gratuity, under the rules.

3. Enquiry reveals that the deceased has not left any properties. There was a sum of Rs.1759/- in the G.I.fund accounts of the deceased and it was drawn by the petitioner. In addition he had 2 insurance policies for xxx400 Rs.500/- each out of which one was a paid up policy. The widow has received a sum of Rupees 621/- (Rs.500 plus 121)-towards the abovementioned 2 insurance Polices. Thus thepetitioner has received a total sumof Rs. 2380/- in all. The widow states that the amount so received were spent for clearing the loans obtained by her second son for meeting the death bed and funeral expenses of the deceased.

4. I am satisfied that the applicant deserves the grantof compassionate gratuity in view of the long service of the deceased, and the poor state in which the widow has been left on the death of the deceased.

5. The pay of the clerk at the time of his death was Rs.80/- D.A.24/- and H.R.A. at Rs.7/- p.m. The aggregate of hispay and D.A.comes to Rs.104/- per month. Under rule 7 of the Madras Compassionate gratuity Rules 1932, the applicant is eligible for Rs.2400/- or 12 months pay plus D.A. which ever is less. The 12 months' pay and D.A. in this case comes to Rs.1248/-

f

Taking all the circumstances into consideration I recommended that a sum of Rupees 1200/- one thousand two hundred only may be sanctioned as gratuity to theapplicant. The amount may be made payable at the South Kanara District Treasury.

6. The descriptive Roll of the applicant, S.R.of the deceased and the records of enquiry are enclosed.

Yours faithfully,

THROUGH THE TAHSILDAR,
TALUK OFFICE,
MANGALORE. S. K.

2-5-53.

Humble petition of Srimathi K. Kamala Bai,
Widow of Sri. K. Lingappayya ( Late)
Clerk, Taluk Office,
Residing in Shanta Durga Vilas,
Gollerkeri Street,
MANGALORE.(S. K.)

Sir,

I submit that my husband Sri. K. Lingappayya, Clerk, Taluk Office, Mangalore, passed away on 1--2--'53 after a protracted illness lasting over 3 months. He was aged about 53 years at the time of his death. He died in harness.

In this connection, I submit that he has left behind him myself and my three children of whom two are males and one is a female. He entered service in the Revenue Department about 30 years back and has put in a permanent service of about 23 years. He was a conscieutious worker serving faithfully and used to attend office on all Public Holidays and Sundays foregoing all comforts and paying little attention to his health. It was his indifference on his part that has brought about his premature death even before he retired from Government Service. This is evident from the fact that in 1951 on or about 23--11--'51 he applied for leave for health reasons but could not avail of it for the simple reason that no suitable substitute could be found to replace him.

He was a Lower Division Clerk at the time of his death drawing a salary of Rs.111/= including all the allowances. He does not possess any immovable property nor has acquired any movables worth mentioning. He has left us all in a precarious condition and we find it very hard to pull on during these hard days. My eldest son is married and has one child. He is employed in the Punjab National Bank Limited, at Gadag, drawing a salary of Rs.110/= which is hardly sufficient to maintain himself and his family at Gadag. My second son is the only earning member working as a typist in the Central Bank of India Limited, Mangalore and is getting a meagre salary. My daughter is unmarried and has come of marriageable age and I am searching for a suitable partner for her. We are living in a rented house paying Rs.8-8-0 per month and I find it very difficult to carry on with the meagre salary my second son is getting. My husband could not save anything out of the meagre salary he was getting as all his 3 children were eductated up to the S. S. L. C. It may thus be seen that our plight after the death of my husband is diplorable.

I am also confident that my Late husband had not given any room for complaint in his official capacity as a clerk in the Revenue Department throughout his service. I have spent about Rs.1500/= during the last period of his illness only the hope that he would recover but as ill luck would have it my husband passed away on 1-2-'53. The money of Rs.1,500/= was borrowed by my son from his friends in the Central Bank of India, Limited. Mangalore.

I have therefore earnestly come forward with the sanguin hope that the Government may be graciously pleased to consider my case simpathetically and grant me relief by way of gratuity and thus relieve me of all the difficulties that the family is now undergoing.

Thanking you,

I beg to remain
Sir,
Yours faithfully,

I am the wife of Late Sri. K. Lingappyya who was serving as a clerk in the Revenue Department for about 30 years. He expired on 1- 2- '53 after a protracted illness lasting for about 3 months. At the time of his death he was aged about 53 years. We are governed by the Mithakshari Law of Succession and belong to a respectable family of Kotayar Community. Myhusband has left behind him myself, my two sons, K. Vittal Rao ( Aged 30 Years), K. Pandurnaga Rao ( Aged 25 years) and my only daughter K. Meera Bai ( Aged 17 years. My daughter is a minor and she is under my care. She is not attending school now. My son K. Vittal Rao is at Gadag employed in the Punjab National Bank Limited. He is living there with his wife and children and not at all in a position to give me any financial help. My second son, K. Panduranga Rao, is employed in The Central Bank of India ~~Limited~~ Limited, Mangalore, as a typist - cum - clerk and he is drawing Rs.86/=. He is living with me but his pay is not at all sufficient to meet the expenses of the entire family of mine. I am living in a rented house at Gollerkeri Street. Except my second Son there are no relatives either from my side or my husband's side who are in a position to help me. My husband has left behind him no immovable properties. He was a subscriber to the G.P. Fund and I being his nominee has now claimed and received the G.P.Fund amount of Rs.1759/=. He had insured his life for Rs.500/= in the United India Life Assurance Co., Limited and for Rs.500/= in the Canara Mutual Assurance Co., Limited. The second Policy referred to above being a paid up Policy, I received only Rs.121/= from the Insurance Company. The amount regarding the above Policy have been claimed by me already. But I have no cash at present as the amount received by me mentioned above has already been spent in settling the loans borrowed by my son, Sri. K. Panduranga Rao, from his collegues, in The Central Bank of India Limited, Mangalore, for meeting the deathbed and funeral expenses of my late husband. As my daughter K. Meera Bai has become of marriageable age and I am searching a good partner for her, I may require atleast a thousand rupees for her marriage expenses. As there are no persons who are able to help me financially especially for the marriage of my daughter and as it is very difficult to save someting out of the meagre salary my second son getting which is very difficult to meet the both ends, I request that I may be sanctioned a suitable ~~xxxxxxx~~ grant of compassionate gratuity taking into consideration, my present helpless conditions The amount sanctioned may be paid to me at the District Treasury Mangalore. Sir, Sub:- Sanction of compassionate allowance to the family of late K. Jagannatha, Clerk, Taluk Office, Mangalore expired on 1-2-53.

I have the honour to report that the above named person died on the 1st February 1953 while in service. He was suffering from Tuberculosis for about three months prior to his death. He has left behind him his widow K. Kamala Bai, two sons Sri K. Sridhar Rao (30 years) and K. Pandurang Rao (25 years) and one only daughter K. Rama Bai (17 years). The deceased is survived by the Nithyakarmas Rao of Succession and his wife and children are his legal heirs. The petitioner i.e. the widow of the deceased is living in Mangalore now in a rented house with her second son Sri K. Pandurang Rao and daughter Kumari K. Rama Bai. The first son of the deceased, Sri K. Sridhar Rao is employed as a clerk in the Punjab National Bank Ltd. at Gadag. By enquiry I came to know that he is drawing a salary of Rs. 110/- p.m. He is living at Gadag with his wife and child. He is not in a position to give any financial help to his widowed mother. The second son Sri Pandurang Rao is employed as a typist in the Central Bank of India Ltd., Mangalore and by enquiry I came to know that he is drawing a salary of Rs. 86/- P.M. He is a bachelor living with his mother. The widow and the daughter of the deceased are solely depending on him. By enquiry reveals that there are no other relations who are in a position or under an obligation to support the family of the deceased.

By enquiry reveals that the deceased has left no immovable properties. The widow of the deceased has already received the G.P.F. amount of Rs. 1759/- which stood in the name of the deceased. The deceased had two Insurance Policies in his name for Rs. 1000/- each out of which one was a paid up policy. The petitioner has already received the Insurance amount of Rs. 621/- (Rs. 500 + Rs. 121) in respect of these Insurance Policies. The petitioner states that the G.P.F. and Insurance amounts received by her have already been spent in full in settling the loans borrowed by her husband for meeting the death bed and funeral charges of the deceased. As the deceased was previously laid up for more than two months prior to his death, it is possible that a sum of around Rs 1000/- was spent on death bed and funeral charges. The daughter of the deceased, Kumari N. Hema Rai

1. The deceased has served for a period of 24 years 8 months and 24 days from 7--5--1928 to 1--2--1953.

2. The pay drawn by the deceased at the time of his death is Rs.80- - 24 - 7 being the pay, D.A. & H.R.A. for a month.

3. Past conduct and Character of the deceased:

He was a hard-working clerk and would work from early morning till night-fall unmindful of his deteriorating health. He was in charge of the heavy darkcast seat for a number of years because no one else who could cope with the work was posted to this Office. Hence his health completely failed and eventually he died. His conduct and character were satisfactory

4. Nil.

5. The deceased has left his widow, 2 sons and one daughter behind him. The first son Sri K. Vittal Rao is employed as a clerk in the Punjab National bank Ltd., Gadag. He is living with his wife and child. The second son Sri Purushotham Panduranga Rao is employed as Typist in the Central Bank of India Ltd., Mangalore. He is living with his widowed mother. He is drawing Rs.80/- per month. The daughter of the deceased is unmarried and she is also residing with her mother. The widow and the daughter of the deceased were solely depending upon the deceased and his second son as the first son is said to be not in a position to remit any amount after meeting his requirements as his salary is only Rs.110/- per month. There are no school going children to the deceased.

6. There are no other relations who are in a position or under an obligation to support the family of the deceased.

7. The deceased has no immoveable properties. There was a sum of Rs.1759/- in G.I.F. account of the deceased which has already been drawn by the widow. He had two insurance policies for 500/- each in his name out of which one is a paid up policy. The widow has received the insurance policy amounting to Rs.621/- (500 plus 121) in all. The widow of the deceased explains that the amounts already received by means of insurance and provident fund have already been spent against the loan borrowed by her second son from his colleagues to meet the death-bed and funeral expenses of the deceased as he laid down for about two months. Moreover the applicant says that daughter of the deceased being unmarried and having attained the age of marriage has to be got married this year. She is now 17 years old and that a sum of Rs.1000/- atleast may be required for the marriage and that the income of Rs.80/- of the second son is hardly sufficient to meet their daily family expenses. Hence not a single pie can be saved from that.

8. The amount may be paid to Srimathi Karala Bai widow of K. Linggappaya Clerk Taluk Office, Mangalore residing in Shantha Durga Vilas Gollerkeri Street, Mangalore at District Treasury, Mangalore.

9. The Service Register in two volumes is submitted after bringing the same upto date. The leave account has also been written upto date. The receipt of the Service Register may be acknowledged.

10. A descriptive roll in the prescribed form is enclosed.

11. ~~The~~ Recommendations:

The maximum amount allowable under the rules may be granted as compassionate gratuity to the applicant.
